

Paul Kocin

Biography

Paul Kocin is currently a Winter Weather forecaster at the Hydrometeorological Prediction Center (HPC) of the National Centers for Environmental Prediction (NCEP) in College Park Maryland. He has previously served as the Winter Weather Expert at the Weather Channel between 1999 and 2006 after a career researching winter storms both at NASA/Goddard Spaceflight Center in Greenbelt, MD and at NCEP when it was located in Camp Springs, MD. During his long career, he has given many presentations and published many papers, as well as authoring the books "Northeast Snowstorms", Volumes 1 and 2, published in 2004 and "Snowstorms along the northeastern coast of the United States, 1955-1985", published in 1990. Both works, and several papers were co-authored with Dr. Louis Uccellini, currently director of NCEP.
